Description | Materials | Pricing

The purpose of the course is to provide a quality certification that meets CMS requirements while reducing the time commitment of veteran agents who are already well versed in the MA and Part D market at an affordable price with optimum number of continuing education credits awarded. The Medicare certification course is divided into three parts Basic Medicare, Advanced Medicare, and Notable Compliance Issue and Market Changes. NAHU's Benefit Specialist Institute provides an online comprehensive program that gives an agent the background to make informed decisions on Medicare, including plan options, marketing and enrollment requirements.

Category: Medicare

An understanding of the material in this curriculum will cover:

- Most Common Compliance Issues Facing Plan Sponsors and Agents
- Changes in CMS Guidelines
- Trends in the Marketplace
- Medicare Supplement

The last module of your course will be the final exam (module #4). When you click on the “Play” button, a pop-up window will appear. It will ask if you are taking the course for continuing education credits. Select the appropriate option. If yes, it will ask you for your professional information so that we can file your CE credits with your state Department of Insurance on your behalf.*

Prior to the start of the final exam, you will be prompted to indicate your carrier(s).

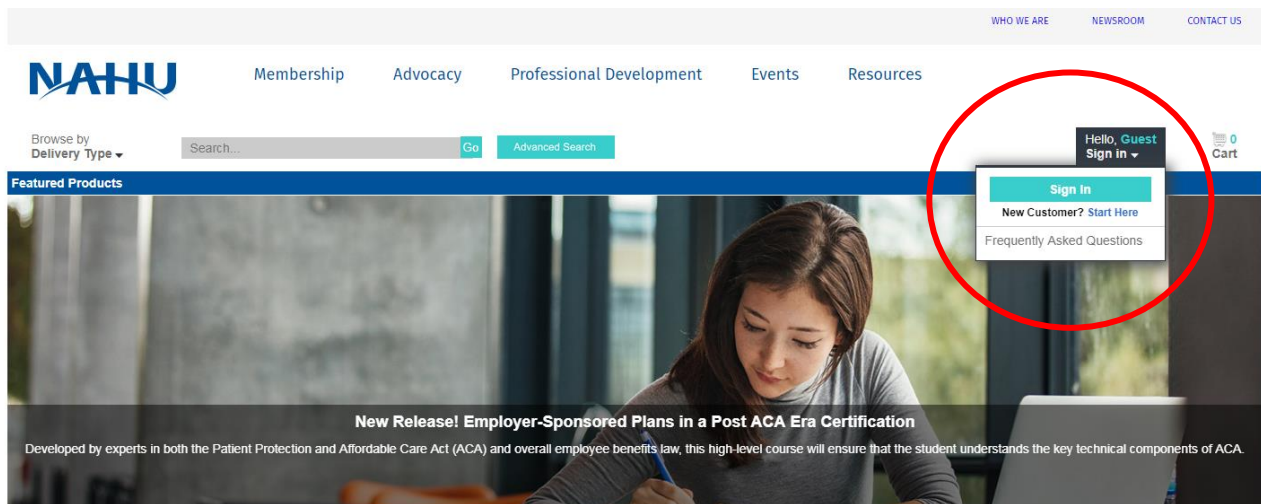

The final exam cannot be paused for completion at a later time. It must be finished in one sitting. If you do not pass, you can retake the final exam at no additional charge. You have six attempts to pass the final exam. The final exam will no longer be available after the expiration of the course.

Rules for District of Columbia Insurance Continuing Education

- This state allows for course material to be downloaded. Please note that not all courses will have content that is suitable or available for downloading.
- Exam is closed book.
- The state of District of Columbia charges an additional fee of $1.00 per credit hour.
- Washington DC insurance continuing education requires an impartial third-party proctor be present during your final exam. The proctor cannot be a friend, relative or co-worker of the licensee, nor anyone with a financial interest in the exam result.

Rules for NAHU MMACR

- The course material consists of three interactive modules. The course is self-directed and may be completed at your own pace; however, the entirety of the course material must be completed prior to accessing your final exam.
- Your exam is closed book. You will have 6 attempts to pass this exam.
- The certification exam requires a passing score of 85%. Prior to taking the exam you will be asked to identify your carriers. Unless otherwise noted, your carrier will be automatically notified when you successfully pass your final exam.
- In order to receive insurance continuing education, you must select your state and provide your insurance license information prior to taking the final exam. If you fail to pass the exam with an 85% on your first attempt, but have achieved a 70% or higher then your insurance continuing education credits will still be posted to your state, but the course will remain incomplete and your certification will not be reported to your carrier until you take the exam and pass it with an 85% or higher.
