INTRODUCTION

You have accepted the role of Membership Chair for your chapter. This is an incredibly important position as the success of your chapter (and NABIP itself) depends on growth, and your leadership and active participation impacts that. Your performance and influence as the Membership Chair will go far in leading and motivating your committee members toward achieving the chapter's goal. Planning, organizing and implementing your plan will make a positive start and ensure a productive year for your chapter.

ALL MEMBERSHIP CHAIR BASIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- Making every effort toward growing your membership, while contributing toward common goals of the chapter, as a committee member.
- Maintaining good membership records.
- Promoting monthly dues payments through recurring monthly payments – members on bank draft have a higher retention rate than annual paying members.
- Promoting chapter involvement in the Region of Membership Excellence (RME) contest.<sup>1</sup>
- Understanding and utilizing ecommerce – NABIP's online membership database system.
- Participating on monthly teleconference calls with your State – Regional – National committees.

Membership Chairs Dos and Don'ts

- If you find yourself in position where your expertise is limited or you are unable to commit time for assigned projects, ask for help. The best source is another member of your committee or your vice-chair, or someone else on your local board.
- Failure to recognize and ask for help when it is needed will cause unnecessary delays in reaching your goals as a chapter and furthermore, as an association.

This guidebook should answer many questions and help resolve issues that are bound to emerge during your tenure as chair.

<sup>1</sup> Members have 60 days from their paid through date before their membership lapses. After that, chapters have an extra 30 days to retain this member. If their membership lapses after that date and they rejoin, they will be considered a new member.

LOCAL MEMBERSHIP CHAIR

- Attend state membership conference calls.
- Report any areas of concern within your chapter.
- Share any membership recruiting ideas on state membership call.
- Network with fellow local chairs in your state to share ideas.

Other Responsibilities

- Appoint a vice-chair to help with the responsibilities of recruiting new members. This person will be your right-hand and work closely with you all year long, as he/she prepares to serve as Membership Chair the next year.
- Announce yourself as Membership Chair and introduce your vice-Chair to your local members at the chapter meeting/luncheon or thru e-communication.
- Based on chapter's strategic plan, organize and hold a membership blitz or/recruitment campaign/s.
- Implement a membership contest (give away a prize at your local meeting to the member who recruits the first member, the most members, etc.)
- Report your progress at monthly local chapter meetings to inspire members and volunteers.
- Always ask for referrals from members at monthly meetings or via e-communication. Use your leads to invite them to join.
- Keep member records up to date, make membership additions/deletions every month and have revised list available at your local meeting's registration desk.
- Keep track of your membership numbers and retention % on a monthly basis – these are obtainable from national website.
- Be on the edge of latest membership news and national contest information. You can always make it personal by adding a chapter-only special incentive, such as a free lunch or discounted local chapter dues.
- Organize special events, such as Medicare Events (you may refer to guidelines of Medicare Summits & related events found in the Medicare Summit manual).
- Each month, obtain list of prospective members from eCommerce (further details on page 7). Contact each of them and encourage them to join the association. Set and track time of contact, schedule a follow-up call and record the results (you may refer to principles of Recruitment & Retention manual).
- Make sure your state membership chair is aware of all of your efforts. Relate to them your recruitment efforts and success stories or concerns with any membership-related issues. It is important that you communicate with your state membership chair so that they can share your ideas with others on the membership team. This is done through the monthly state membership calls.

STATE MEMBERSHIP CHAIR

- The regional membership chair assigned to your state will schedule regular membership teleconference calls with the state membership chairs.
- It is very important that you attend each of these calls to receive the most recent and up to date information from the National Membership Council.
- If unable to attend, please ask your vice-chair to attend or a local membership chair. It is very important that your state has representation on the calls.
- These calls are for discussing what is and isn't working in your area and any particular problems you may be having or issues affecting your region.
- Use this time to network with your peers and ask for their assistance.
- It is up to the state membership chair to then schedule regular conference calls with the local membership chairs in your state.
- If participation is low on your calls, contact the state president and local chapter presidents for their assistance in getting full participation from the local chairs.

Other Responsibilities

- Appoint membership vice-chairs to help with recruitment efforts. This person will be your right hand and will work with you closely all year long.
- Participate whenever possible in your local chapter membership blitzes and campaigns.
- Participate in your regional membership chair's regular calls.
- Stay in touch with your local membership chairs & vice-chairs to learn of their recruitment success stories/failures/concerns & report these back to your regional membership chair.
- Make sure your local membership chair & vice-chair are using the reports from eCommerce to help in their recruitment efforts.
- Implement a membership contest (give away a prize at your state meeting to the member who recruits the first new member, the newest members, etc. CASH is always a good incentive!)
- Attend and help lead the membership session at your state annual leadership conference.
- Remember, by offering effective training, you'll ensure that the future state membership chairs know what they are doing.
- Keep your local membership chairs and vice chairs "in the loop" by communicating with them what you've heard from your Regional Membership Chairs.

NATIONAL MEMBERSHIP COUNCIL

The Membership Council creates, develops, and communicates effective tools that will assist state and local chapters for recruiting and retaining members. These tools will enhance the membership experience as value added benefits. The Membership Council will work together with all other national councils to develop sound strategies to show the value of NABIP's membership and grow the association.

The above statement is the guideline for the NABIP Membership Council as outlined by the NABIP Board of Trustees. Communication to the state and local membership chairs is vital to their chapter's success. Many chairs are serving for the first time and do not realize what their responsibilities may be. It is the primary responsibility of the NABIP Membership Council to educate and be a resource for the state and local membership chairs and the chapter members. The NABIP Membership Council consists of the following members.

1. Council Chair
2. Council Vice-Chair
3. Council Membership Manager
4. 8 Regional Council Chairs representing each region
5. 8 Regional Retention Chairs representing each region
6. One NABIP staff and one Board of Trustees liaison

NABIP Membership Council Responsibilities

- Regional Membership Chairs will host regular conference calls with state membership chairs;
Retention Chairs are to be on those calls.
- All National Membership Council members should communicate regularly with their state and local chairs via phone and email.
- Participate on the monthly NABIP Membership Council conference calls.
- NABIP Membership Council members will be expected to report on any issues, comments, and concerns with their designated chapters to the Council on a regular basis.
- NABIP Regional Chairs must attend the Regional Leadership calls hosted by their Regional Vice President.

MONTHLY MEMBERSHIP REPORTS

- Membership reports are generated on the 15th of each month.
- Report shows number of members at end of previous month as well as Regional Membership Excellence (RME) contest standings.
- Report is broken down by region, state and local chapters.
- Membership Chairs can find this report on the website under:
  - Resources
    - Leadership Reports
      - Membership Reports
        - Read More and scroll down to access the reports

eCOMMERCE

- NABIP online membership database access tool is called eCommerce.
- Members have access to change their own personal records.
- State, local, and regional chairs have access to export and print their own chapter reports.

Questions on using eCommerce? - contact NABIP at membership@NABIP.org

Leadership Roster

As a Membership Chair, you should have been designated by your president as one of three people in your chapter to have access to eCommerce. To find out whether you have access, just send an e-mail with your name, chapter and position to membership@NABIP.org . Make sure you ask, “Do I have eCommerce access?” so we’ll know why you are contacting us.

Monthly Communication

As a state/local/regional membership chair you can expect regular communication from the National office with a friendly reminder on how to run monthly reports and how to read obtained data.

There are monthly conference calls where 100 % attendance and participation are vital as a team leader.

There should be two goals as it pertains to membership – recruiting new members and retention. The communications to each group will be different, but the main theme will always be the same – the value of NABIP membership.

Maintaining good membership records

In order for your chapter to function effectively, you must first know how many members you have and who they are. You should:

- Keep all member addresses up-to-date.
- Collect any missing information (phone, email, fax).
- Access monthly membership reports through eCommerce.
- Contact new members by extracting a New Member List. Welcome them to the association; invite them to the next meeting and encourage them to get involved.
- Make corrections to the bad address and send to NABIP immediately.

Recruiting new members

Recruiting new members is one of your most important tasks. How well you do this job directly reflects on your skills and will become your legacy once you have given up the membership officer position. It is also important because a growing chapter is a vibrant chapter. The only way to ensure that your chapter continues to be a strong, powerful voice for health insurance agents in your area is to keep its number multiplying. You should plan to hold at least one “membership blitz” during the year.

Some basic things you’ll need to recruit new members

- A supply of new member applications
- A good contact list of potential new members
- Ask Insurance Carriers or loyal chapter sponsors for their list of agents in your area
- Pull a lapsed list from eCommerce and work with the Retention Chair to call them to rejoin
- Obtain a list of agents from the Department of Insurance

MARKETING

Membership is the lifeblood of any organization/association, and for good reason – it represents a group of professionals that establish standards and ethics in a given industry. That is certainly true at NABIP, and our members are dedicated to ensuring that everyone – individuals and employers, large and small – has access to adequate, affordable health coverage.

If membership is the lifeblood, then recruiting is the heart. Recruiting new members is one of the most important tasks that your chapter will face during the year. It is important because a vibrant and healthy chapter has to grow, and the only way to ensure that your chapter continues to be a strong, powerful voice is to keep its numbers multiplying. There is definitely strength in numbers!

While at first this task may seem overwhelming, it can be accomplished as long as there is a plan that has the buy-in of the board and the members. A cause that is not supported by everyone cannot succeed. ALWAYS THINK MEMBERSHIP!

Tips on recruiting new members:

Some chapters use a percentage of total membership as a measure of growth. For example, if the chapter is comprised of 100 members, it might have a growth rate of 10% - or 10 new members. The problem here is that retention is not taken into consideration. If the chapter gets 10 new members, but loses 20, they have a net of -10.

That means you will need to look at retention numbers, especially if you have a long history of members lapsing each year. Once you determine what your retention rate will be (and the goal for your chapter should be at least 85%), then you can use that number to figure how many new members you need to reach your growth objective. In the example above, if the retention rate is 85% and 15 members are anticipated to lapse, then you will need 25 new members to reach your growth objective of net +10, or 10% in this case.

Prospect lists can come from many sources – you can buy a list of health producers by zip code, you can obtain a list from your state's Department of Insurance, or you can refer co-workers or others you know to be in the health insurance field. The nature of the list will determine the success rate of each. As you would expect, the warmer the lead (co-worker, friend in business, etc.), the better the success rate.

List Bill

As we look to recruit multiple members from one organization, a popular program that is available is the List Bill Membership Program. This is a convenient way for the organization to have one invoice for 3-9 employees who are NABIP members. The following page lists the requirements for the program.

Guidelines for “List Billing Membership”
Program
One Invoice
System

Minimum Size to Participate	3 new or current members enrolled in program.
Dues Paid	All applicable national, state and local dues owed by each member; no discounts can be offered.
Billing Cycle	All members’ dues will be prorated to a uniform renewal date in the first year; date to be determined by existing members’ renewal dates, in concert with sponsoring company’s wishes. Payment may also be made by bank draft or credit card draft on the corporate account.
Invoicing Schedule	First consolidated invoice sent 60 days prior to renewal date. Groups over 50 members may pay in two installments, provided that final payment is made within 90 days of paid through date.
Changes to Roster	Sponsoring company may change members upon the transfer or termination of any members under the program. Additional members may be added at any time, with first year dues prorated to the uniform renewal date.
Ownership of Membership	While the sponsoring company may determine which of its producers or staff may participate in the program, the memberships attach to the individuals – the sponsoring company does not derive any benefits of membership because of its participation.
Enrollment Process	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Sponsoring company sends a list of members to be included on the bill, including name, address, phone, fax, and email.</li><li>2. NABIP staff reviews list, determines appropriate chapter affiliations and calculates prorated dues.</li><li>3. Consolidated invoice is sent to sponsoring company.</li><li>4. Memberships are activated upon receipt of payment from sponsoring company.</li></ol>

Recruiting Carrier Reps and General Agents

NABIP is an association of health insurance professionals, and that includes not just producers, but all who work in the health care industry. This includes those who work in employee benefits, and areas such as dental, disability income, Medicare-eligible products, long term care, and other related insurance markets. Carrier representatives and general agents are just two segments that are possible members, as it is important for them to stay up to date on issues affecting the producers who sell their products or put business through your organization.

Here are some benefits of membership that may be available through your chapter or at the national level for this group:

- Local membership meetings with guest speakers on pertinent topics
- Ability to exhibit and possibly speak during the chapter meetings
- Discounted rates for annual benefits expo or other events
- Annual Golf Outing – sponsorships and putting together a foursome
- Industry Publications such as ABS Magazine, Washington Update, other pertinent Newsletters
- C.E. License credits through Education Programs
- Certification Courses, Compliance information and tools, and the REBC designation
- Discounts on C.E. class fees
- Eligibility for Leading Producer Round Table (LPRT) Award
- Enhanced professional image while working with fellow NABIP members
- Representation in (state) and in Washington DC

Many carrier reps and general agents will want to become members to support their producers, as many NABIP members like to do business with fellow members.

Sample emails and letters can be found at the end of this Guidebook.

ADVERTISING

Advertising is the act of communicating directly to an audience using all available sources, such as sending segmented emails and promoting online. A successful campaign attracts the viewer's attention and makes them want to learn more about the promotion. Highlighting reasons to join during the promotion generates excitement, especially if there are incentives to win.

Target & Segmentation

Remember, general mass emailing promotions have a very poor response rate. The more targeted message, the better the response. Divide your lists and target prospective members with messages geared towards each group.

Repetition

Repetition is exactly what it sounds like, and it is a very effective method. It is a means of getting a message into the memory of a receiver. This is particularly helpful, because it gives the opportunity for prospects to weigh the message and make a final decision.

Set Deadlines

Always set an expiration date for promotions to end, which will create a sense of urgency and generate a missing opportunity scenario.

Flyers/Marketing Pieces

NABIP flyers and some marketing pieces can be personalized and used for chapter campaigns and blitzes.

Tracking and Analyzing

Keep track of response rates - this is the last step, which uses specific methods to measure how effective the campaign was and whether it met the desired objectives.

The following pages contain sample communications (emails and phone tracks) to use in your recruiting efforts. They include:
